RE: Appellate Case No.: 06-19-00045-CR; Memorandum Opinion and Judgment.

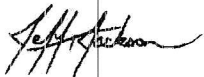

Mr. Barnes,

I am writing to inform you that the Sixth Court of Appeals has Affirmed the trial court's judgment in your case as to the conviction for Burglary of a Building; however, the court Remanded the case back to the trial court for a new trial on the issue of punishment only. I have enclosed with this letter the opinion and judgment from the Sixth Court of Appeals for your review.

This means that the court found that there was error in the record as to the sentencing in your trial, so you will be returning to Gregg County for a new sentencing hearing, or to try to negotiate a new sentence. At this point, I do not know who your attorney will be when you return, but I will try to find out and let you know as soon as possible.

I wish you well, and I regret that the judgment was affirmed.

Best regards,

Jeff T. Jackson

RE: Appellate Case No.: 06-19-00045-CR; PDR by the State.

Mr. Barnes,

I'm writing to inform you that the Gregg Co. DA's Office has filed a Petition for Discretionary Review of your Appeal with the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin. They are asking the Court to reverse the findings of the 6th Court of Appeals, which remanded your case for a new trial on the issue of punishment. Because this is beyond the scope of my appointment, I cannot represent you in these proceedings. You will have to represent yourself or request that the trial court appoint you counsel on the PDR.

Best regards,

Jeff T. Jackson
